Special Sale of Coldstream Durocs

At Coldstream Farm, August 16, 1921

This sale having been decided on, nothing is to be left undone to make it a success from the bidder's viewpoint. A goodly number of our choicest young sows will go under the hammer—beautifully bred, massive individuals, each weighing 500 lbs. or more.

The sows are all bred for early September farrowing-mostly to Walt's Great Top Col., a splendid young boar, standing, as a senior yearling, 44 inches high, on a 10-inch bone, with 83 inches over the back between the eyes and root of tail.

Terms if Desired—Terms will be arranged for those who so desire and can furnish satisfactory bank references. Cl Remember the date—also the fact that adverse market conditions for us mean advantageous transactions for the purchaser. For particulars, address

The next four years he would spent as "a servant of the people," advancing Richmond's causes in every way possible. He would also endeavor to lower the taxation rate. yet keep the city clean and up-todate throughout. The present inadequate drainage system would be improved and all unhealthful rubbish and garbage eliminated. Under his administration he would see that the law was enforced, that peace and orden might dominate Richmond.

Mr. Golden is a strong believer in the ladies_ prerogative to vote, and if he is chosen the next Mayor of Richmond he proposes to have a Health Board, composed of some of the best business women of the town two from each ward, and the power be given them to elect the Health Officer "If the voters will stand behind me and give me the reins of the city government for the ensuing term," said Mr. Golden, "I will give them an administration that will meet with their approval in every respect. I will set things right, and bring about a betterment of conditions that will appeal to every man and woman in the town." During the eight years in which Mr. Golden has served on the council he has demonstrated his ability, his qualifications for enacting laws for the betterment of the city, and for a more prosperous community. Possibly no man in the town was more conspicuously identified with the undertaking of making Richmond dry than Mr. Golden. He believed in the principle of prohibition and exerted his best efforts to bring about the change. He has the will power and the initiative. He feels that he can serve the people's best interest as Mayor, and not that they should serve him. Mr. Golden's candidacy was endorsed by ex-Mayor Woods in letter published in the Daily Register some weeks ago and with which the public is familiar.

On account of Mr. Golden's associate in business having been confined to his room for some time by sickness, he has been unable to see all the voters; hence, he is asking that everyone who is interested in a progressive administration to rally to his support and elect him Mayor of Richmond at the forthcoming Democratic primary, Saturday, August 6th.

Live Stock, Etc., Also 2 Small Farms At Public Auction On The Premises

Wednesday, August 3rd 10 a. m. rain or shine

This magnificent estate is located 2 1-2 miles from Hustonville on the Bradfordsville turnpike. Everybody knows about the land around the good town of Hustonville-no better in the state The same and the control to the first with

When Mr. Baughman bought handsome property about a year ago for a permanent home little did he dream at that time it would ever be on the market again. But man proposes and God disposes. Since then he has lost his father and it has made a great change. He has already made arrangements with the heirs to take over the home place of his father, J. K. Baughman, and for this reason only is disposing of thees valuable holdings at a sacrifice to put the money in the "Old Home Place" around which so many sweet memories and sentiments of by-gone days cluster. It will be an ABSOLUTE SALE.

IMPROVEMENTS-Elegant two-story residence of ten rooms, fully equipped, bath room, halls, three porches, large cellar, or dairy, right at door in which things were never known to freeze. Besides the water works system in this home, there is also an Acetylene light plant. Tenant house of three rooms, small barn, two large stock barns, cow barn, jack barn, buggy house, garage, mill shed, cribs, silos and all kinds of outbuildings, including stock scales.

FINE WATER-Three everlasting springs, cistern at house medicated water in porch, pond, concrete troughs, etc. In fact enough water for the whole community at any time during the year and the town of Hustonville thrown in. Splendid orchard of about 100 trees, good variety of apples, pears, peaches, cherries, etc. Fencing A-1.

All of this farm lies exceedingly well-a regular tractor farm. Prior to Mr. Baughman's purchase last year it had been in the Carpenter family for over 45 years. It had been carefully farmed for forty years by Mr. Calvin Carpenter. It has been petted and pampered. Is now in the highest state of cultivation and ready to punch and make good money. All in grass except 56 acre in corn, 10 acres tobacco. The best tobacco crop in Lincoln, Boyle or Garrard counties. By their fruits ye shall know them. Just look at the growing crops on this good dirt and judge ye. YOU had better join the crowd and attend this sale. They will be there and one look at this HOME will make your mouth water and long to call it your own. It will be subdivided into tracts to suit the purchaser. The farm is cut into ten fields besides the numerous lots. Beautiful approach, fine shade, lovely location for a HOME, an ideal place to live, splendid neighborhood, etc. This place is all we claim for it and more. Written words cannot do it justice. You must see it to appreciate what it realy is. We invite the closest inspection, for we know the more you look the more you will bid. Personalty consists of live stock, etc.

Everything about this property is in apple-pie order. Mr. Baughman has spent a lot of money putting in hardwood floors and other improvements. He knows that he has got to lose all of this and a pile of money on the farm. Let come what will you will always find Henry Baughman a MAN-his words is always his bond and he is game to the core. He invites you to this sale and asks YOU to say what it is worth and he is going to make you a deed.

At the same time and place we will sell for him for the High Dollar a 30-acre tract adjoining the above tract. All in grass. Has a good ten-acre tobacco barn and everlasting water.

Also what is known as the "Crisp Place," containing about 56 acres one mile off Bradfordsville pike. Every acre of it is hempt and tobacco land. All of it in blue grass and timothy except six acres in corn. It has been in grass for years and years. Well watered and fenced. Small orchard House of six rooms, new porch, halls, etc., cistern at door, good stock barn and four acre tobacco barn, and all other necessary outbuildings. A dandy little home for some one.

ABSOLUTELY FREE—To the person guessing closest to what this property will bring we will give $10.00' in gold and to the person guessing next closest $5.00 in gold.

Possession January 1, 1922. Terms liberal and made known on day of sale. Dinner on the ground. Look this property over and meet us there on sale day-WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, at 10 a. m., and pound your bids at her. HUGHES & M'CARTY - - - STANFORD, KENTUCKY COL. J. B. DINWIDDIE ON THE BLOCK

Facts About Our City

1. Two primary considerations present themselves to the voter in his choice of city officers: (a) ability and integrity; (b) past achievements.

Richmond is a $4,500,000 corporation and nobody but a proven successful business man should be placed at its head.

- 2. Mr. L. P. Evans, standing for re-election, is a man of recognized integrity and earnestness, successful in his personal business affairs, and himself a property owner and a substantial taxpayer.
- 3. Aside from giving us four years of efficiency in the routine of City Government, the big achievement of Mr. Evans' past administration as Mayor, was the building of our sewerage system and our fine new streets. By this work our town has at last lifted itself out of the mud and dirt and taken its place beside its neighboring and rival towns.

All well informed persons know that no town or city in the world, from the wonder cities of New York and Chicago down to Winchester, Paris, Danville and Richmond, has ever achieved growth in population, wealth or comfort except by the expenditure of money for civic improvements. Those cities which do not make such expenditures, merely for the purpose of having low taxes, remain back-woods communities. Richmond had been that long enough.

4. No thinking taxpayer objects to paying taxes provided he gets value received. Because of the energy, foresight, and hard work of Mayor Evans, we have gotten full value received on our streets and sewers. Both the street and the sewer construction were done at lower unit cost than any similar work done in any other Kentucky cities within the past two and a half years.

Neither the sewerage contractor nor the street contractor made a dollar out of the work. Not a dollar was wasted anywhere.

The funds with which this work was paid for, were procured at less than 5 per cent while other Kentucky cities were and are paying 6 per cent in addition to bonuses to the contractors to do the financing.

Our finished work, under almost a year's use, shows itself to be almost a perfect job.

5. City tax rates have, of course, been increased for the purpose of paying off the $150,000 bond issue which the taxpayers authorized the city administration to incur, but by the plans worked out by Mayor Evans, embodied in the city's ordinances, the tax rate for street and sewer improvements gradually decreases each year during the life of the bond issue. $20,000.00 of the bond issue has already been paid off and the tax rate for this purpose has already been reduced from 45 cents to 35 cents.

Aside from increased requirements of the School Board over which the Mayor has no control, the city's tax rate is just 32 cents on the $100 more than it was in 1916. If the School Board's requirements were the same as they were in 1916, the city's tax rate would now be $1.50 instead of $1.85, and if both the increase for school purposes and the increase authorized by the vote of the people for streets and sewers were deducted the present rate would be $1.22 as against $1.25 in 1916.

What more can we ask or expect from our city's chief officer? Would we have Richmond go back to where she was eighteen months ago? Will we re-elect Mayor Evans, who has accomplished something and who has proven his ability, or will we elect a person of unknown and unproven capacity?

THIS MAKES MR. HAYS HAPPY

His Policy of Humanizing the Post office Department Results in Saving a Woman's Life.

Washington.-Postmaster Will Hays probably is the happiest man in Washington today. His slogan "Humanize the Postoffice Department" has been carried out to what appears to be the limit. Here is the story:

In a little Nebraska farmhouse a woman lay dying for lack of medical attention. The nearest physician was Dr. Selby at North Platte. True, North Platte was only two miles away, but between the dying woman and the physician was the South Platte river, flooded to a raging torrent that had swept away every bridge near and

Dr. Selby had telephoned to every town within a radius of twenty miles. At each turn it was the same disheartening story-bridges gone and no way of fording the turbulent

Just when all hope seemed gone, Dr. Selby remembered something. Somewhere he had read that the postmaster general was "humanizing" the postoffice department. He rushed to the telephone and asked C. A. Sluder, manager of the air mail field at North Platte, to take him across the river in

"Sorry," said Sluder, "but I couldn't without getting authority from Washington first."

"In that case," replied Sluder, "we

"THE FORD COUPE"

Here is one of the most useful of all closed cars. Decifically so when not more than two or three are to be accommodated with reliable car service. The Ford Coupe is a mighty cosy car, in that it is absolutely water-tight, at the same time with its sliding plate glass windows you can have an open car to all intents and purposes, in a couple of minutes. So it doesn't make any difference what the weather may be, rain or shine, summer or winter, in the Ford Coupe you have an enclosed car of comfort and service. What more do you want?

It has proven particularly a valuable car for traveling salesmen, physicians, engineers, architects, and others who have much out-of-door work all the year round. We have never been able to fully meet all demands for the Ford Coupe, but with the increased producing capacities of the factory we are now able to make reasonably prompt deliveries.
